The number of people $P(t)$ (in hundreds) infected $t$ days after an epidemic begins is approximated by $P(t) = \frac{10 \ln(0.19t + 1)}{0.19t + 1}$. When will the number of people infected start to decline?